Gospel Meditation

August 1, 2021 - 18th Sunday
in Ordinary Time

“You cannot see the forest for the trees” is a widely known saying that can bring wisdom to our understanding of our journey. Often, our sight becomes limited to what is immediately before us. We lose touch with lessons and experiences from the past and promises and hope for the future. As human beings, we have the privilege of being able to choose things. What I like and don’t like, want, and don’t want can be major preoccupations of our minds and hearts. Our preferences and desires begin to define us more than the simple fact of our being. Who we are matters more than what we are or what we have. If we don’t move beyond the external and superficial stuff to what really is of essence, we risk becoming very unsettled, disorientated, angry, and unhappy. We fail to see the bigger picture of hope and promise that lies ahead and the Divine Presence that has sustained and carried us before.

We like it when the “now” time of our lives satisfy us. Even the people who witnessed Jesus feed the five thousand got confused and distracted. It felt good when thousands of people were able to eat. They wanted to know what they could do to get this to happen again! But Jesus quickly reminds them that this is not the point of this sign. As much as the now time of our lives is of concern, it is not what is ultimately important. We need to learn the difference between being and doing, drawing more strength from who we are and who God is rather than what is happening around us and the choices we can make. Jesus is the true bread that came down from heaven. Jesus is the very incarnate presence of God who sustains life and assures us that we will not perish. This is not easy to understand and feel. We have to practice being in the presence of ourselves, others, creation, and God. We are brought to a holy place when we encounter the sacredness of being. This is real prayer.

Then, we learn to trust. It is when we cease trusting that we start to become afraid, uncertain, apprehensive, and doubtful, and overly self-concerned. We even start to grumble. God has our back. That is the essential powerful message of the living bread come down from heaven. God, who is alpha is also omega, the beginning and the end, and has everything in between in his care as well. A woman once remarked that her most powerful God moment happened when she and her husband cuddled with their new baby for a time. Without exchanging words and using only the affection communicated through sight and touch, they rested in being with each other. This brought them to the sacred, where they realized that a greater Being was with them. It was real. They knew that they were part of something bigger, intimate, and profound. When we rest in the Living Source of life, we will find that our souls are no longer hungry or thirsty.

Spiritual Communion:

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there And unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Helping Hands
(Funeral Luncheons)

We are pleased to announce we are once again offering Funeral Luncheons for family members for those parishioners buried from St. Anthony.

Please feel free to call Mary 734-279-5372 if you would like to be on the list of contacts to provide a dish, volunteer as a worker, etc., for when the need arises.

May God Bless you!

Mass Intention Correction

There was an additional Mass Intention for this Friday, August 6 at the 8:30am Mass that was omitted in the listing on page 2 of today's bulletin:

†William Reiss by James Blaine

Also, the listed Intention: Marty Joseph is for the 7:00pm Latin Mass.

So, the correct listing for Friday, August 6 should be:

First Friday, August 6, 2021

8:30am †Ron Sawyers, Sr.

(English)

by Jeanne Holup

†William Reiss by James Blaine

7:00pm *Marty Joseph

by Wayne & Aggie Langscheid

My apologies for the errors. Michelle

Catholic Outreach

St. Anthony Catholic Outreach is a group that was formed several years ago to attend to the needs of those parishioners who were homebound.

There are several forms to our outreach ministry:

- Holy Communion on a regular basis; we could use a few more willing to visit people as the need arises. Please pray about it to see if the Lord is calling you for this very special ministry.
- We've also had a volunteer to take care of sending cards to our homebound on a regular basis. God Bless that person who prefers to remain anonymous.
- A few days ago we also had a parishioner who would like to expand our outreach even further by visiting the homebound and elderly of the Parish. This may also include helping with occasional yard work, picking up groceries, etc. details are being discussed.

If you'd like to be involved with our "Outreach Team", or would like more information,

Please call

Glenn Ingersoll 734-856 8913,
or Michelle in the Parish Office
